Surat's 80-ft iconic tower set to turn back the clock

Provision made in municipal budget for repair, restoration of Clock Tower in Zampa Bazaar

Surat, February 5

SURAT'S ICONIC 80-foot-tall clock tower, which stopped working several years ago, is all set for repair and renovation.

Surat Municipal Commissioner M Nagarajan on Thursday announced that a provision has been made in the draft budget for 2026-27 for restoration, maintenance and repair of the vintage clock tower in Surat built in 1871.

Talking to The Indian Express, Nagarajan said, "We have taken up the task to restart the closed clock tower on Raj Marg as it has a historical importance. We have made provision in the annual budget for its operation, repair and maintenance. We will find an expert who can repair it, and a contract will be given for its operation and maintenance."

The Surat Clock Tower, which stands in the middle of Zampa Bazaar on Raj Marg connecting Surat Railway Station to Chowk Bazaar, is one of the oldest clock towers in India. The clock has four dials facing four cardinal directions. Sources said it stopped working 60-70 years ago, but no effort was made by the authorities till date to restore it.

The spiral staircase to the upper floor is closed for public use.

According to sources in the heritage department of SMC, the Clock Tower was constructed in 1871 by Parsi merchant Khan Bahadur Burjorjee Merwanjee Fraser at a cost of Rs. 14,000 in memory of his father, Merwanjee Hormusjee Fraser. It was built in the middle of Zampa Bazaar to serve the local people as many at that time could not afford wristwatches or pocket watches to keep track of time. The tower is visible from a distance even while travelling via vehicles and buses plying in the area. The impressive design of the Clock Tower is further enhanced by its tall red-brick structure.

Kheda: Principal, three teachers booked for Dalit nursing student's suicide

In suicide note, student says 'madam is blaming me without proof'; his parents were summoned last week

Aditi Raja
Vadodara, February 5

TWO DAYS after a 19-year-old Dalit student of a nursing college in Kheda district of Gujarat allegedly died by suicide, leaving behind a note referring to torture saying "madam is blaming me without proof", the Nadiad Rural police lodged an FIR against five persons and handed over the probe to the Deputy Superintendent of Police of the SC-ST cell.

Jay Vijaykumar Patil, a first year student of Dinsha Patel Nursing College at Nadiad, allegedly took the extreme step at his residence on Monday after being "depressed" for a few days.

According to the FIR lodged by the police, the student and his parents were summoned to the institution last week, where the teachers and the Principal of the college warned the student about his "behaviour" and threatened to "issue a leaving certificate".

The Principal of the institution and three teachers identified as Dhara Madam, Prakruti Madam, Sherin Madam and a person named Smit, who has been identified as a "close aide" of the teachers, have been named in the FIR. The accused have been booked under relevant sections of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita for abetment to suicide as well as the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989.

In a suicide note left behind, Patil apologised to his mother for taking the extreme step and stated that he was “exasperated” as he had “not said anything to any madam (but madam is blaming me without proof”.

The suicide note, addressed to his mother, stated that he had "not passed ridiculing remarks about anyone's body" and therefore, he was "taking the extreme step"....

Kheda district Superintendent of Police Vijay Patel told The Indian Express that the FIR had been lodged following a complaint from the family of the deceased.

"We are looking into the details of the incident that led the institution to summon the parents of the deceased student, where he was warned about disciplinary action and made to submit a written apology... The investigation has been handed over to the DySP of SC-ST cell," Patel said.

The family of the deceased student has alleged that the accused teachers "ganged up on the student" and despite there being no official complaint, he was "harassed and picked on".

Vijay Patil, the father of the deceased, alleged that the teachers had ganged up against his son and demanded justice for his son.

"My son was called in our presence and the teachers of the school had ganged up against him. They told him that they will observe his behaviour for a week and issue a (leaving) certificate. He was harassed now and then over accusations of indiscipline. He had been depressed for four days. It had hurt him deeply. There was no complaint against him, what were they pulling him up for. I want justice for my son," Vijay Patil said.
